

Frequently asked questions regarding the SESAM accreditation process

I'm not sure what I should write at every point in the application documents

Just describe your current activity as clearly as possible. Provide any documents supporting your description

Will I have a chance to communicate with the SAG (SESAM Accreditation Group) after submitting the application?

The accreditation is not a one-way process. After receiving the documents, the SAG will contact you to clear any open questions.